

Northern Arizona Pioneers' Historical Society Membership

The Northern Arizona Pioneers' Historical Society (NAPHS) has been operating since 1905 because of its members. No need to be a "pioneer" to join – you just need to have an interest in local history! NAPHS is a "friends" group supporting the Pioneer Museum (Arizona Historical Society) and Riordan Mansion (Arizona State Parks & Trails). The key purpose in a membership and the benefits provided is to promote these and other historic sites and increase involvement in preserving the history of northern Arizona.

Membership term is one year from the date of your enrollment as a member:
